

Incident Reporting

It is a statutory requirement that incidents in schools are recorded. Reporting and investigating these is an essential part of managing workplace health and safety to prevent further occurrences.